

Africa Connected

Africa Connected is an online publication that provides insight on a wide range of legal, regulatory and sector issues about doing business in Africa.

Visit the DLA Piper Africa site for more information

NÚMEROS

Africa Connected: COVID-19 and the evolution of dispute resolution

4 November 2020
Africa Connected

ISSUE 5

COVID-19 and the evolution of dispute resolution in Africa is the theme of this edition of Africa Connected. We have articles on issues ranging from third party funding and its implications in African disputes, to the use of virtual hearing platforms across the continent. Jurisdiction-specific articles cover how the pandemic has affected legal practitioners - and the court system - in Burundi, Kenya, Nigeria and Tanzania.

Africa Connected: ESG and climate implications for the mining sector in Africa

11 August 2020
Africa Connected

ISSUE 4

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and climate change considerations in the mining sector is the theme of this edition of Africa Connected. We have articles on how mining companies can prepare for new ESG performance standards in 2020, the impact of World Bank sanctions and mine rehabilitation challenges as well as pieces on the Tanzanian mining reform and resource nationalization trends in Southern Africa, among others.

Africa Connected: Energy in Africa – innovation, investment and risk

17 November 2019
Africa Connected

ISSUE 3

This issue's focus is innovation, investment and risk in Africa's energy sector. Our Africa-wide articles look at the role of gas in powering Africa's future, geothermal power generation, and whether the African Continental Free Trade area can solve the continent's energy challenge.

DLA Piper is a global law firm operating through various separate and distinct legal entities. Further details of these entities can be found at www.dlapiper.com. This may qualify as "Attorney Advertising" requiring notice in

Africa Connected: Trends in financial services

17 April 2019
Africa Connected

ISSUE 2

Trends in the financial services sector is the theme of this edition of Africa Connected, our regular collection of in-depth articles on doing business in Africa. We have Africa-wide articles on fintech, the liberalization of financial services and mobile money access; and jurisdiction specific pieces on Morocco, Mauritius, Namibia, South Africa, Zimbabwe, among others.

Africa Connected: Doing Business in Africa

5 November 2018
Africa Connected

ISSUE 1

Investment is the theme of this edition of Africa Connected, with articles on China's One Belt One Road initiative, the Big Five of tax structuring, and private equity as a catalyst for growth in Africa – plus jurisdiction-specific pieces on Kenya, Morocco, Namibia, Nigeria, South Africa and Zimbabwe.
