Alberto Angeloni focuses on Italian, European and international bankruptcy and contentious insolvency law, including litigation and out-of-court matters.

His experience includes representing clients in bankruptcy proceedings such as claw back actions, voluntary and involuntary petitions for bankruptcy, appeals against the opening of bankruptcy proceedings, proceedings for the validation of pre-pack arrangements and composition with creditor plans, and any other matters relating to domestic and international insolvency proceedings.

He also assists debtors and creditors in restructuring and reorganisation matters in compliance with the Italian bankruptcy law.

Alberto has considerable experience in shareholder disputes, board of directors duties and liabilities, as well as corporate and commercial disputes.
