Member of Paris and New York Bars, Alexander Brabant is experienced in international litigation particularly in international arbitration. He regularly acts in business law dispute resolution, in particular in connection with contract law, mergers and acquisitions litigation, shareholder litigation, as well as in complex construction/industrial litigation involving multipartite judicial appraisals.

He also appears before state courts, in order to assist clients in securing conservatory or provisional measures, or in connection with the recognition and the enforcement of arbitral awards and foreign judgments, as well as motions for annulment.

A substantial portion of Alexander's practice also consists in advising companies in the natural resources (in particular mining) and telecoms sectors in Africa. Such work has included for example advising listed mining companies regarding the validity of their mineral titles, and their representation before ministerial commissions (such as the Commission de revisitation des contrats miniers in the Democratic Republic of Congo) and, more generally, regarding the development of strategies designed to protect mining rights.
