

Employee and Labor Relations

Whether employers are focused domestically or multi-nationally, the laws relating to an employer's relations with its workforce are becoming increasingly critical and central to corporate strategy. Whether the issue is compliance with international conventions or treaties, whistleblowing in the financial services sector, employee consultation over business reorganization, or even basic employment law compliance, success turns on navigating an increasingly complex regulatory framework. And where a multi-national company is targeted for a global strategic labor campaign of the type which seek to multiply an employer's legal and regulatory problems, a coordinated global response is necessary.

We are one of the few practices in the world that can combine experienced resource in this area covering more than 20 countries. Our approach is to use our considerable experience to deliver practical and effective solutions for our clients. We often assist clients in the formulation of strategic goals, applying best practice in the process, in addition to assisting clients to achieve or protect their long term pre set objectives.

With years of experience in dealing with collective employment and traditional labor matters and disputes, we are ideally placed to advise, guide and represent employer clients domestically and internationally.

CAPABILITIES

We advise extensively across the whole field of collective labour relations, including in relation to:

- Developing coordinated and innovative strategies for responding to the Global Strategic Campaigns that increasingly are the preferred strategies of global union federations and international labor unions.
- The establishment of national information and consultation forums and European Works Councils
- The conduct of trade union and works councils officials and employee representatives
- The contractual force of trade union agreements
- Industrial action ballots, strike action, industrial action short of a strike and picketing
- The impact on third parties of industrial action (usually via outsourced agreements) and remedies available
- Collective bargaining and pre-bargaining negotiating strategies
- Trade union recognition and de-recognition, both through voluntary arrangements and following judicial applications

EXPERIENCE

- Advising and representing a significant employer within the construction materials sector, in relation to an organised leverage campaign mounted by a leading independent trade union. Injunction applications were issued prior to resolution via a negotiated settlement.
- Advising FTSE 100 and Fortune 250 companies in the retail, construction, transportation, security, and hospitality industries in relation to Global Strategic Labour campaigns.
- Advising a major provider in the outsource security services sector in relation to the de recognition of one of its two recognised trade unions.
- Advising employers in relation to the impact and effect of existing trade union agreements and providing a strategy to simplify and rebase trade union agreements via negotiation and the presentation of a new style recognition arrangement.
- Advising a world leading company in the transport sector in relation to reorganisation of its trade union recognition arrangements, allowing an extension to staff grades, whilst excluding manager grades and restricting collective bargaining rights in relation to a new grouping.
- We have advised a number of clients including one of the world's largest telecommunications companies on their unionisation strategies in China including advice on how to deal with the pressure to unionise and how to structure unions and deal with publicity once the decision to unionise had been taken.
- Providing strategic advice to a leading hotel chain in relation to European trade union pressure to establish a new binding European works councils agreement.
- Assisting a leading global pharmaceutical company in its strategy to "head off" pressure for its German based European Works Council (EWC) to be renegotiated in the light of the new legislation.
- Advising a UK-based listed global construction services business on all aspects of its industrial relations and employment matters in Australia, including enterprise bargaining and other union-related matters connected with major mining, oil and gas and infrastructure projects and issues concerning migration and cross-border employment.
