

Employment

DLA Piper's global employment practice advises clients worldwide on employment legislation, helping them meet their workforce objectives.

We partner with our clients, wherever they do business, to find solutions and manage risk in relation to their employment, incentives and pensions legal challenges and objectives.

With lawyers across the Americas, Asia Pacific, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, our global employment team is one of the largest in the world, with one of the widest geographical footprints of any international law firm.

We can assist with:

- Acquisitions
- Outsourcings
- Expansions or reductions-in-force
- Local or international employee relations
- Data privacy or data protection
- Local, cross-border or collective litigation
- Local or multi-jurisdictional compliance
- Risk management

Our clients range from startups to emerging multinationals and some of the biggest and best-known global brands in the world. We work with our clients locally, internationally and across borders. Our global reach and local knowledge means that we can partner with clients to drive consistency, deliver cost savings and help them identify and manage their priorities and risk across multiple locations.

With market and economic shifts, new technology, globalisation and global mobility, a demand for more flexible workforces and ever-increasing scrutiny of compliance and ethics, the employment and labour challenges for multinationals are greater than ever.

EXPERIENCE

Diversity and Inclusion - how does the retail sector fare in the boardroom?

5 JUN 2019

With diversity and inclusion fast becoming a hot topic on the agenda for almost every business across the globe, there is no doubt that the requirement for a more diverse board is increasing.

The consumer goods and retail landscape is rapidly evolving. Now more than ever, consumers are seeking more diverse products from which to choose and a variety of different ways to shop. With the need for the overall customer experience to reflect this broadening diversity, is the sector sufficiently diverse to be equipped with the varied cultural knowledge and understanding to take on the challenge?

Unexpected Human in the Bagging Area: the impact of automation on retail workforces

27 OCT 2017

I suspect most of us have had the experience from time to time - you're looking to buy something a little bit out of the ordinary, and don't really know where to start. Two stories I heard recently neatly illustrate how that can result in both good and bad experiences. One story involves a teetotal friend looking to buy wine for a dinner party. His trip to a specialist vintner was frustrated by a condescending member of staff and resulted in my friend leaving the shop having not made a purchase. In contrast, another friend decided to take up running after being on maternity leave. She visited a running shop, was put at ease but a member of the sales team and left with trainers, clothes and gadgets.

In Finland

DLA Piper Finland offers comprehensive employment law advice to employers, employees, executives, labor unions as well as governmental entities. The vast majority of our clients are large or medium-sized Finnish and international corporations operating in various sectors, including technology, insurance, media and telecoms, consultancy, financial institutions, energy and retail.

We constantly advise our clientele in connection with domestic and cross-border and other transactions as well as on drafting individual employment and director contracts, carrying out dismissals and collective redundancies as well as on statutory co-operation procedures. We conduct HR audits to review and improve employment practices and documentation of our clients.

Our expertise also covers social security, pension, occupational safety and health, data protection and privacy matters.

The firm's Employment practice is strengthened by special industry knowledge available through close cooperation with the firm's other practice areas. Some of our employment attorneys exclusively deal with employment law matters while others focus also on related fields such as litigation and M&A. All our attorneys working in this practice area litigate on a regular basis.
