

Employment

DLA Piper's global employment practice advises clients worldwide on employment legislation, helping them meet their workforce objectives.

We partner with our clients, wherever they do business, to find solutions and manage risk in relation to their employment, incentives and pensions legal challenges and objectives.

With lawyers across the Americas, Asia Pacific, Europe, Africa and the Middle East, our global employment team is one of the largest in the world, with one of the widest geographical footprints of any international law firm.

We can assist with:

- Acquisitions
- Outsourcings
- Expansions or reductions-in-force
- Local or international employee relations
- Data privacy or data protection
- Local, cross-border or collective litigation
- Local or multi-jurisdictional compliance
- Risk management

Our clients range from startups to emerging multinationals and some of the biggest and best-known global brands in the world. We work with our clients locally, internationally and across borders. Our global reach and local knowledge means that we can partner with clients to drive consistency, deliver cost savings and help them identify and manage their priorities and risk across multiple locations.

With market and economic shifts, new technology, globalisation and global mobility, a demand for more flexible workforces and ever-increasing scrutiny of compliance and ethics, the employment and labour challenges for multinationals are greater than ever.

EXPERIENCE

- Advised a global client on drafting and implementing a Global Code of Conduct in over 50 jurisdictions
- Advised on implementing a 900 employee global restructuring, affecting employees in around 30 jurisdictions worldwide
- Advised a full service investment bank on global restricted stock award documentation encompassing restrictive covenants and notice periods applicable to 19 jurisdictions

APAC employment issues arising out of the Coronavirus

31 January 2020

On 29 January 2020, the number of confirmed cases of the rapidly spreading coronavirus in Mainland China officially surpassed the figure seen during the 2002/2003 SARS epidemic.

Multinationals with local operations around the APAC region have been significantly affected. As staff return to the office following the Chinese New Year holiday period, businesses are now considering what they can do to minimise any risk to health and safety and support staff through this challenging period where anxiety and uncertainty is rife, whilst at the same time complying with their employment obligations and maintaining business continuity. Putting in place detailed business and contingency plans and ensuring careful communications with staff to address key topics and concerns is key, as is keeping such plans and communications under frequent review given the fluidity of the current situation.

This alert considers some of the key issues that HR and business leaders should be considering across the APAC region.

In Germany

DLA Piper has one of Germany's leading teams in employment law. Our offices in Frankfurt, Hamburg, Cologne and Munich have more than 25 employment law specialists who excel in dealing with all issues of individual and collective employment law, owing to their many years of experience.

Our team is part of the international employment law practice, which includes more than 250 lawyers around the world specializing in this field of law. The many and diverse projects that they have handled have given them a great deal of experience in cross-border and cross-jurisdiction cooperation.

Advising on employment law is one of our firm's core competencies, which we are continuously extending and expanding. All of the team's lawyers deal exclusively with employment law and related fields. They are extremely well networked, valued and recognized internally and externally, both locally and internationally. The cases handled by the group include all issues of employment law, from day-to-day personnel management to transactions and sensitive, time-critical restructuring projects.

Among our clients are companies of every size and from a variety of sectors, including international conglomerates and major medium-sized businesses.

We have extensive experience in advising on company development and growth, and on disputes with works councils and individual employees. We routinely provide advisory services concerning laws on employment contracts with management boards and executives, especially companies with co-determination.

We also support our clients with regard to restructuring existing company pension plans or introducing new forms of care and the associated liability risks.

Our continuous and close collaboration with other practice groups, in particular with the tax and corporate law areas, enables us to provide advisory services in legally complex and cross-segment issues such as those that arise in the context of outsourcing or secondments abroad. In addition, we have had great success providing employment law support for transactions.

FOCUS AREAS

We advise nationally and internationally active clients in, among others, the following areas:

- Company pension plans
- Changes in business operations and insolvency
- Transfer of operations and transactional employment law
- Compliance and data protection
- Structuring and terminating employment contracts
- Co-determination in operations and business
- Litigation
- Collective bargaining law and labour disputes
- Models for remuneration and employee profit-sharing

EXPERIENCE

- Provided Europe-wide advisory services for Newell Rubbermaid on all issues of employment law
- Ongoing advising of H&M Hennes & Mauritz GmbH, which has approx. 400 branches and approx. 16,000 employees, on a wide range of issues relating to employee rights and representation
- Comprehensive advising of AB Elektronik / TT electronics on a planned restructuring and on relocating production abroad
- Expansion of worldwide ongoing advisory services for Cisco Systems, Inc. concerning issues of internal reorganization, and increasingly also relating to collective bargaining matters arising from the recently established works council

- Post-M&A integration/restructuring and global transformation of HR Fuller Gruppe after the acquisition of Switzerland's Forbo Group, including plant closure
- Support in many collective bargaining disputes that arose especially in connection with the change in partners from Alcatel Lucent Network Services GmbH to the current ZTE Operations GmbH
- Advised Barclays on implementing an international whistleblowing strategy
- Regular advising of Benteler on issues of employment law and other legal matters
- Advised Atos Information Technology on outsourcing the IT department of Nokia Siemens in a total of 15 countries. This project required international coordination
