Commentary on the Schrems II ruling: “Serious implications”

29 July 2020

The Court of Justice of the EU (CJEU) today handed down its judgment in the long-awaited case of Data Protection Commissioner v Facebook Ireland Limited, Maximillian Schrems (Case C-311/18, commonly referred to as Schrems II).

DLA Piper comments on Schrems II data transfer case

8 July 2019

A landmark case will be heard before Europe's highest July 9th which could have profound implications for the global digital economy. The case is the latest instalment of a clash between US law enforcement laws and European data protection laws which is being played out between Max Schrems, an Austrian privacy activist, and Facebook.
