Dr Sharon Fitzgerald is a senior partner in our international projects practice with particular experience advising public and private clients on major infrastructure projects, PPP projects and a range of complex commercial contracts across a variety of sectors.

Sharon has advised the governments of Afghanistan, the UK, Scotland, Wales, Timor-Leste, Ghana and Zimbabwe, various other regulated entities, and private sector clients operating in a multijurisdictional environment.

She has drafted and negotiated PPP contracts (including concession, BOT, ROT and DBFO models), construction contracts, equipment and plant supply contracts, services contracts and operations and maintenance contracts.

Sharon also has over 20 years' procurement experience (EU directives, EBRD requirements and World Bank requirements). She has advised government clients on procurement strategy and the structuring of procurement competitions. She has drafted tender documents, evaluation methodologies and has evaluated tenders. She has advised private sector clients on tendering strategy and tender submissions.
