Data Protection and sport - the key issues to consider

10 MAY 2018

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which comes into effect in the European Union on 25 May 2018 and rewrites European data protection law, is highly significant for sports bodies. The Regulation directly impacts on commercial and regulatory functions. Nick Fitzpatrick, Partner and Global Co-Chair, Media, Sport and Entertainment Sector at DLA Piper LLP, in this article outlines how the GDPR will impact sports bodies and the possible practical responses to the new requirements.

Global Media Sector Trends 2018

6 MAR 2018

DLA Piper's new Global Media Sector Trends 2018 report explores how new commercial opportunities are being created by disruption, specifically in relation to the rise of over-the-top (OTT) content, virtual / augmented reality (VR/AR) and the internet-of-things (IOT).

Data and sporting integrity - the key issues to consider

7 DEC 2017

The use of data for betting integrity is important to sports bodies, betting companies who rely on the integrity of sport to maintain trust in their own products and minimise losses through fraud, and increasingly (as the process of opening up gambling markets has continued across Europe and beyond), government regulators.
