Guy Flynn represents parties in all areas of commercial real estate investment, development, leasing and finance.

His clients include institutional investors, pension funds, developers, lenders, borrowers, underwriters, and other public and private business entities in various commercial transactions, including joint venture, acquisition and development, leasing, commercial finance, purchase and sale, workout, foreclosure, syndication and PropTech transactions. Guy also counsels clients with respect to land use regulation, taxation, environmental, corporate, and bankruptcy issues.

The respected English research firm Chambers & Partners perennially lists Guy in Chambers USA, noting that he is "outstanding," "is widely respected in the market," "is commended for his expertise in commercial real estate development and finance," is "very knowledgeable about commercial real estate tax issues and structures" and "adept at handling large transactions." Chambers has also noted "his involvement in a series of high-profile and high-value transactions in Maryland."

In May 2019, Guy was inducted into the Maryland Chamber of Commerce Business Hall of Fame in recognition of his outstanding contributions to the state's business community that have helped advance the quality of life for Marylanders and the state's business climate, and for his professional achievements, community service and mentorship within Maryland's legal, civic and philanthropic communities. In July 2019, Guy was named to The Business Journals' "Influencers: Law" list, which spotlights 100 notable attorneys nationwide who are driving business for their employers, and for their clients, in cities across the country. In November 2020, Guy was named to the Baltimore Business Journal's "Who's Who in Law 2020" list of attorneys and other legal practitioners "who have made their mark on Baltimore, and Maryland more broadly, in their careers." In March 2013, the Daily Record named Guy to its 2013 Influential Marylanders list. The list recognizes individuals who have made significant contributions in their fields and are regarded as leaders in Maryland. In November 2013, Guy was awarded a 2013 Leadership in Law Award from the Daily Record in recognition of his outstanding professional achievements, community service and mentoring within Maryland's legal community. In November 2016, Guy was honored by the Israel-based Bnai Zion Foundation for his work as a legal and community leader in the greater Baltimore area.

Repeatedly since 2007, Guy has been named a Maryland Super Lawyer by Law & Politics and Baltimore magazines. In June
