

Brooke Goodlett

Of Counsel

brooke.goodlett@dlapiper.com

Austin

T: +1 512 457 7039

F: +1 512 721 2239

Brooke Goodlett represents public and private companies in a variety of industries in corporate and securities law matters. Brooke focuses on corporate and securities law thought leadership, knowledge management and client service.

RELATED SERVICES

- Corporate

Brooke has experience representing publicly traded companies in SEC compliance and disclosure, corporate governance, executive compensation, and investor relations matters, capital markets transactions and mergers and acquisitions. She has also represented private companies at various stages – from startups to mature venture and private equity-backed companies – and their investors in general corporate and securities matters, including startup/incorporation matters and counseling, capital-raising transactions and mergers and acquisitions.

Brooke is a member of the Texas Pro Bono College and provides pro bono legal aid to children, veteran-owned businesses and organizations promoting economic growth and empowerment.

EXPERIENCE

REPRESENTATIVE TRANSACTIONS

Brooke has represented:

- Numerous privately held technology and life sciences companies in their sales to strategic buyers and acquisitions of privately held strategic targets
- Publicly traded companies in the software, advisory services and oil field services industries in acquisitions of private and public strategic targets
- A European technology "unicorn" in a multimillion-dollar acqui-hire of US employees
- Two publicly traded technology companies, conducting due diligence review and provided governance advice in their sale to strategic buyers
- Privately held technology and consumer products companies in investments by private equity sponsors
- Numerous privately held technology companies in private capital-raising transactions
- Private equity and venture capital firms in a variety of investment transactions

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- Louisiana
- Texas

Recognitions

- Texas Super Lawyer Rising Star, Texas Super Lawyers Magazine (2019–2020)

Education

- J.D., University of Texas 2010
with honors
- B.A., Political Science and Philosophy, Tulane University 2005
magna cum laude

INSIGHTS

Publications

California legislation and recent stockholder derivative suits push for more board diversity

7 October 2020

California's latest diversity law follows a new wave of shareholder derivative actions attacking the lack of racial diversity in corporate leadership.

Annual shareholder letter considerations and guidance

1 April 2020

This alert provides an update on practice as of the date of publication as well as general guidance and insights to assist boards of directors and senior management of US public companies as they evaluate their communication strategies.

Coronavirus considerations and guidance for US public companies (United States)

3 March 2020

While the situation remains fluid and the specific impacts on most companies are uncertain, the coronavirus COVID-19 outbreak may create risks in all aspects of business.

Announcing DLA Piper's 2020 SEC Filing Deadline Calendar

19 November 2019

Created to help public companies keep track of the various filing deadlines throughout the reporting year.

US regulators assert jurisdiction on several fronts regarding digital assets

16 October 2019

Companies offering digital assets are taking note of this upswing in regulatory activity and their compliance obligations.

2019 Proxy Season Hot Topics: Part 2 – a deeper dive into 2019 proxy season

13 FEB 2019

Proxy Season Hot Topics

A deeper dive into such issues as Glass Lewis, pay ratios, virtual shareholder meetings and board diversity.
