CFTC staff issues no-action relief from uncleared swap margin rule

17 June 2019

On June 6, 2019, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission's (CFTC) Division of Swap Dealer and Intermediary Oversight (DSIO) announced it will provide no-action relief to permit certain amendments to legacy swaps without losing their status as legacy swaps. The CFTC Letter No. 19-13 No-Action dated as of June 06, 2019 (the "Letter") was in response to a request from ISDA on behalf of its members for a position of no-action for failure of a swap dealer to comply with the CFTC's uncleared swap margin requirements with respect to certain amendments to legacy swaps.

Derivatives Clearing Organizations Regulations: CFTC Proposed Amendments

6 June 2019

On April 29, 2019, the Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC) approved a proposed rule to amend certain regulations that apply to derivatives clearing organizations (DCOs) under Part 39 of the CFTC's regulations, which implements the statutory core principles for DCOs. Part 39 generally covers registration and regulation of DCOs that centrally clear futures, options and swaps regulated by the Commission.

Pro Bono Partner Views: Claire Hall

23 OCT 2018

Claire Hall (Los Angeles) is a partner in DLA Piper's Finance practice focusing in derivatives and structured finance transactions. Claire's pro bono work focuses on improving the lives of undocumented immigrant children in Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS) and guardianship proceedings. SIJS proceedings give children the opportunity to seek lawful permanent residence in the United States when there is evidence of neglect, abuse, abandonment, or similar circumstances. Claire has collaborated with organizations that assist immigrant children, such as Kids in Need of Defense and the Alliance for Children's Rights.
