COVID-19: Nine practical steps for employers, right now (Australia)

7 April 2020

Employers and employees are facing extraordinary challenges because of the COVID-19 pandemic and the measures imposed to ameliorate its spread and its impact on the economy.

In this article we discuss practical steps that employers should be aware of in respect of the COVID-19 pandemic. This article discusses some of the most recent policy initiatives released by the Government including the new JobKeeper regime.

We will provide further guidance as the measures imposed to address the COVID-19 pandemic continue to evolve. To ensure that you do not miss any updates or if you require support globally, please email us at CoronavirusEmployment@dlapiper.com.

Coronavirus: Directors' duties and making decisions in a crisis

1 April 2020

Directors need to carefully consider the risks of the COVID-19 outbreak within their business, given its impact on the global economy. As many now face significant, and increasing, cash flow pressure, directors should carefully consider their actions in the context of the legal framework.

APAC employment issues arising out of the Coronavirus (AsiaPac)

31 January 2020

On 29 January 2020, the number of confirmed cases of the rapidly spreading coronavirus in Mainland China officially surpassed the figure seen during the 2002/2003 SARS epidemic.

Multinationals with local operations around the APAC region have been significantly affected. As staff return to the office following the Chinese New Year holiday period, businesses are now considering what they can do to minimise any risk to health and safety and support staff through this challenging period where anxiety and uncertainty is rife, whilst at the same time complying with their employment obligations and maintaining business continuity. Putting in place detailed business and contingency plans and ensuring careful communications with staff to address key topics and concerns is key, as is keeping such plans and communications under frequent review given the fluidity of the current situation.

This alert considers some of the key issues that HR and business leaders should be considering across the APAC region.
