The scourge of counterfeiting in Morocco

20 MAY 2019

Many consumers love fakes. It is not unusual to find, in Morocco, a counterfeit Chanel bag at MAD2,000 (EUR185), or Gucci sneakers at MAD1,500 (EUR138). Counterfeit items are often made with materials that are as close as possible to those used in the originals even if the difference in quality is at least significant (i.e. natural leather for bags and shoes and cotton or wool for clothing).
