The Russian Supreme Court's first ever Plenum Resolution on Arbitration

13 March 2020

In December 2019 the Russian Supreme Court issued its first ever Plenum Resolution on Arbitration. A Supreme Court Plenum Resolution is a court act of the highest level, is binding for lower state courts and usually serves as a “bible” for judges dealing with the relevant topic.

Leonid is the author of a monography "Commercial investments in real estate: legal regulation" (Moscow, Infotropic Media, 2012) and a series of articles on investment law and international arbitration.

The recent include:

- Arbitration Changes in Russia: Revolution or Evolution? / Journal of International Arbitration 35, no. 2 (2018)
- Challenging the Competence of an Arbitral Tribunal / International Commercial Arbitration Review no. 2 (2017)
