

Up Again: Luxembourg

Welcome to our Luxembourg Up Again section, helping you get back to business after the disruption from COVID-19. Each tile below will take you to detailed FAQ and a feed of our latest content for that subject area. We're publishing articles and updates as the situation develops, so check back regularly.

People

Premises and Workplace

Suppliers and Contractors

Privacy and Data

Governance

Insurance

Government Relief and Tax

COVID-19 Construction Guide

Consumer Goods, Food and Retail

Financial Services

Industrials

INSIGHTS

Publications

Coronavirus - Luxembourg

25 September 2020

Commercial companies with legal personality and special limited partnerships whose financial year ended on 31 December 2019 must approve their annual accounts no later than 30 September 2020 and must and to have the accounts filed and published by no later than 31 October 2020.

Coronavirus in Luxembourg – extension of the flexibilities with respect to corporate bodies' meetings

23 September 2020

Today the Chamber of Deputies is voting a bill regarding the measures taken towards companies and other legal entities's meetings. This bill should enter into force from 1 October 2020.

Post-state of crisis flexibilities in Luxembourg

3 July 2020

Considering the scale and speed of the spread of coronavirus in Luxembourg, the government declared a state of crisis in the Grand Duchy on 18 March 2020. An arsenal of new regulations was implemented to combat the spread of the virus, to maintain economic stability and to grant flexibility to companies in view of the practical difficulties they face in the context of the pandemic and the movement restrictions.
