Craig Martin has spent his legal career working on complex distressed situations.

Craig has represented numerous parties in a variety of cases, including equity committees, committees of unsecured creditors, bank groups, indenture trustees and debtors. He has also advised purchasers of assets in bankruptcy auctions and court-approved sales and frequently provides bankruptcy-specific advice in complex mergers and acquisition situations involving distressed entities.

While Craig has appeared in the bankruptcy courts all across the US, his work frequently focuses on cross-border situations. He has acted as counsel in cases in Canada, Germany, Ireland, Hong Kong, Spain, Bermuda, the Dominican Republic, Africa, the UK and Argentina. Craig has also acted as first-chair litigation counsel in a number of cases involving terms of bond indentures, such as x-clauses, permitted indebtedness clauses and other covenants.

NOTABLE EXPERIENCE

Craig has:

- Represented a non-debtor Belgian subsidiary in a contentious adversary litigation involving a corporate group of companies, the ultimate parent of which is a post-confirmation chapter 11 debtor. See In re Total Containment Inc., 2007 WL 1775364. Craig led the client through the litigation and mediation, resulting in a 90 percent reduction of the client's alleged liability
- Guided a senior secured lender through a contentious five-day trial for the appointment of a trustee to operate a distressed television station, leading to payment in full of the lender's principal and interest
- Performed due diligence and drafted complex representations and warranties protecting a Spanish purchaser of a distressed business from liabilities for bankruptcy expenses and accrued taxes. Craig also recently drafted the bankruptcy provisions of an asset purchase agreement in which a US company bought assets from a distressed company based in Germany
- Advised a chapter 11 debtor and manufacturer on the liquidation of its non-debtor Canadian subsidiary and litigation over ownership of cash proceeds of a demutualization of an insurance company
- Negotiated a royalty payment from an Indian purchaser of a US debtor's assets on behalf of an Irish pharmaceutical corporation in a manner that was acceptable to the divergent interests of different creditors and investors
- Advised a publicly traded distressed textile corporation with operations in Honduras and Nicaragua on its prearranged
