

Nuclear

Our lawyers have unrivalled experience applying the law to nuclear issues. Our nuclear practice is built on the experience and quality of our lawyers, but it is our sector knowledge which really sets us apart. We have unparalleled experience in the nuclear industry, its sub-sectors and the issues that are faced on a day to day basis.

We have advised nuclear operating companies, suppliers, reactor manufacturers, turbine manufacturers and engineering services firms and other stakeholders, including owners and operators of uranium deposits, financing sources, sovereign governments and regulatory authorities and participants in all aspects of the nuclear fuel life cycle.
