

Andreas Politis

Lead Lawyer

Andreas.politis@dlapiper.com

Brussels

T: +32 (0) 2 500 1500

F: +32 (0) 2 500 1600

Andreas Politis is a legal practitioner with experience in a broad range of fields and a further focus in Antitrust and Competition law, including merger control, cartels and State aid. Andreas is part of the Litigation and Regulatory department of DLA Piper, working for both the Competition team and the EU-Greek practice.

Andreas has experience with both EU and Greek competition laws.

Andreas has worked in Law firms in Greece and Cyprus representing the systemic banks of these jurisdictions. His legal background extends through several practice areas, such as Competition, Regulatory Compliance and Data protection.

Andreas focuses his practice on a number of industries, including the banking sector, energy, telecommunications and pharmaceuticals.

RELATED SERVICES

- Antitrust and Competition
- Merger Control
- Data Protection, Privacy and Security

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

English French Greek

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- French
- Greek

EXPERIENCE

- Advising international companies on multi-jurisdictional and EU mergers filings
- Advising multinational companies on compliance programs
- Advising on the acquisition of companies in the pharmaceutical sector
- Advising financial institutions on competition implications of agreements

CREDENTIALS

Education

- Vrije Universiteit Brussel, LL.M. in international and European Law, cum laude, 2017
- National and Kapodistrian University of Athens, LL.B., cum laude, 2011

Memberships

- Brussels Bar

INSIGHTS

Publications

- Big Data and competition law - what does the future hold?, Sofia Competition Forum, 2017