

Alberto Rubio

Partner

a.rubio@dlapiper.ar

Alberto Rubio focuses his practice on labor law, litigation, bankruptcy, restructurings and corporate criminal investigations.

He has been involved in some of the most notable debt restructurings and bankruptcy proceedings taking place in Argentina. Working in the Province of Santa Fe, his home province, and in Buenos Aires, Alberto has extensive experience advising domestic and international clients. Alberto regularly meets with practitioners, scholars and members of the judiciary who are analyzing new developments in his practice areas, allowing him to remain up-to date regarding breaking legal developments.

He recently participated in an investigation for one of the largest business conglomerates in Argentina in connection with the so-called "notebook scandal".
