

Marcus Sandifer

Associate

ADMITTED IN NEW YORK

NOT ADMITTED IN GEORGIA BUT BEING SUPERVISED BY A LICENSED GEORGIA BAR MEMBER

marcus.sandifer@dlapiper.com

Atlanta

T: +1 404 736 7856

F: +1 404 682 7834

Marcus Sandifer has experience defending clients in commercial litigation disputes, pharmaceutical products liability claims, and building material products liability matters. He has also gained significant experience in food and beverage false advertising and mislabeling class action cases and SEC civil investigations.

RELATED SERVICES

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

CREDENTIALS

---

Admissions

- New York

Recognitions

- The National Black Lawyers Top "40 Under 40"
- Emory University School of Law Sutherland Scholar & Dean's Fellow
- Most Outstanding 3L at Commencement
- Black Enterprise Magazine's top 100 "Modern Men"

Education

- J.D., Emory University
- M.S., Troy University
- B.S., Florida A & M University

Memberships

- Vice Chair of the Law Student Division for the American Bar Association
- National Director of Community Service for the National Black Law Students Association
- Vice President of the Emory Law Student Bar Association

INSIGHTS

---

Publications

Voir dire* in the time of COVID-19

16 July 2020

The COVID-19 pandemic will only further increase limitations on voir dire that may prove detrimental to parties' ability to vet jurors.

---

COVID-19: Tort immunity for vaccines and antivirals – lessons from the swine flu of 1976

8 April 2020

While the common goal is to quickly develop countermeasures to combat COVID-19, it is important to consider the potential legal and reputational risks.

---

- Co-author, "The Privilege Implications Of Using Online Collaboration Tools," The Law 360, 2020