Ed Scheideman has been litigating for 20 years in federal and state courts around the country, as well as before arbitration panels. A substantial portion of his practice includes complex business litigation, including antitrust, False Claims Act, RICO, and other business tort and fraud related matters.

Ed has tried numerous cases to resolution, and argued appeals in many appellate courts around the country. In addition to his business litigation practice, Ed also regularly represents corporations in litigation matters related to land use covenants, commercial leasing and other complex real property matters.
