

Philip C. Svahn

Partner

Austin

T: +1 512 457 7242
F: +1 512 721 2242
M: +1 512 653 3040

Phil Svahn represents US and foreign institutional investors, funds of funds and financial institutions on their investments in alternative assets. He focuses on private market transactions and has extensive experience with comingled funds, single investor funds, funds of funds, co-investments, direct investments and secondary transactions.

RELATED SERVICES

- Corporate

Phil is also experienced in investors' internal compliance matters, advisory board matters, fund formation and dissolution, Investment Company Act and Investment Advisers Act matters, and as well as other statutory, regulatory and policy matters applicable to institutional investors.

He regularly works with clients on investments in domestic and foreign real estate, private equity (debt/credit, buyout, infrastructure, energy and strategic), and venture capital funds and accounts.

CREDENTIALS

Admissions

- Texas

Recognitions

- Thomson Reuters, Rising Star (2009, 2010)

Education

- J.D., Syracuse University College of Law
magna cum laude
Order of the Coif
- M.P.A., Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University
- B.A., George Washington University

Memberships

- National Association of Public Pension Attorneys
- Pension Real Estate Association
- State Bar of Texas - Business Law Section
- Austin Bar Association - Corporate and Tax Section

Teaching Experience

- Assistant instructor, Institutional Limited Partner Association Institute Level II program

NEWS

Leading investment funds practice joins DLA Piper

5 MAR 2018

A six-partner team extensively experienced in the representation of institutional investors in connection with their alternative investments and other matters joins the firm.
