

Transfer Pricing

Transfer pricing and the associated risks are becoming more and more a boardroom issue for multinational groups as countries are looking to secure their share of tax revenue in cross border business transactions. These risks are becoming unavoidable as intra-group arrangements become more transparent globally to revenue authorities around the globe through transfer pricing documentation such as local files, master files and country by country reports. This will expose multinationals to a range of questions from tax authorities, controversy risks and higher tax liabilities. This publication series highlights how transfer pricing considerations should be reflected in commercial and legal arrangements and ways to manage potential transfer pricing disputes.

Has your Mauritian transfer pricing documentation kept pace with the Mauritius Revenue Authority?

25 June 2019

Transfer Pricing

On June 10, 2019, the Hon. Prime Minister and Ministry of Finance & Economic Development of Mauritius presented the 2019-20 Budget. In the Annex to the Budget Speech, it was indicated that the arm's length standard in the Income Tax Act (section 75) will be revised to eliminate any doubts or uncertainty as to its application. Among the other important measures, this was a signal that transfer pricing will become more of a focus in the coming years in Mauritius.
