

Andrew Wylie

Partner

HEAD OF INVESTMENT FUNDS, INTERNATIONAL

andrew.wylie@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 20 7796 6051

M: +44 79 6855 9058

Andrew Wylie advises on the full spectrum of funds work, including the structuring and establishment of funds, fund restructuring, advice to potential investors in funds and advice about managed accounts.

Andrew's clients range from the managers of hedge funds, private equity funds and real estate funds to family offices, pension funds and sovereign wealth funds.

He also advises on most types of investment funds, including credit funds, hedge funds, infrastructure funds, private equity funds and real estate funds, as well as managed accounts.

Andrew has a wealth of international experience and has advised about private funds in all major fund jurisdictions, including the United Kingdom, the USA, Hong Kong, Luxembourg, the Middle East, the Cayman Islands and the Channel Islands.

Andrew is a member of the Cambridge Land Economy Advisory Board which provides support and advice to the Department of Land Economy at the University of Cambridge. Andrew is also an External Speaker on the Master of Finance programme at Cambridge Judge Business School.

Andrew is also a trustee of The Forward Trust, a UK charity.

Andrew is the International Head of Investment Funds at DLA Piper.

RELATED SERVICES

- Corporate
- Global Investment Funds
- Financial Services Regulatory
- Private Equity
- Real Estate Investment

CREDENTIALS

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Recognitions

- "Very responsive, very cool, good at handling difficult clients and very bright." Chambers & Partners

- "Quite brilliant: he gives first-rate advice that encompasses both the legal and commercial situation." Legal 500
- Who's Who Legal has identified Andrew Wylie as being among the world's leading private funds lawyers
- Featured in Who's Who Legal: Private Funds 2020 and Who's Who Legal 2020

Education

- University of Cambridge M.A.

INSIGHTS

Publications

English and Luxembourg venture capital funds: Key features

12 September 2020

Andrew Wylie (Partner and Head of Investment Funds, International) has recently co-written a practice note "English and Luxembourg venture capital funds: key features" published on Thomson Reuters Practical Law on 6 October 2020 and reproduced here with permission from the publisher.

English and Luxembourg private equity funds: Key features

11 June 2020

Andrew Wylie (Partner and Head of Investment Funds, International) has recently co-written a practice note "English and Luxembourg private equity funds: key features" published on Thomson Reuters Practical Law on 29 May 2020 and reproduced here with permission from the publisher.

Global Tax Alert - UK Budget, Spring 2020

10 April 2020

In the March 2020 Budget, the UK government highlighted its wish to review the UK's fund industry. Read our key takeaways on the consultation document. Richard Woolich and Michael Graham of DLA Piper will be making representations to HM Treasury, please let us know if you have any comments.

English and US venture capital funds: key features

24 June 2019

Andrew Wylie (Partner and Head of Investment Funds, International) and Steven Yentzer (Managing Partner, Seattle) have recently written a practice note "English and US venture capital funds: key features" published on Thomson Reuters Practical Law UK on 6 June 2019.

Andrew is an author of The Open-Ended Investment Companies chapter, which was first published in Tolley's Company Law Service, a LexisNexis publication. Access the full text of this chapter.

Events

Real Estate sector lunchtime briefing, 22 Jun 2017

Andrew is sought after as a public speaker and has given seminars at a number of leading international law schools and business schools about the global investment funds industry. In Europe, these include London Business School, London School of Economics, INSEAD, the University of Cambridge and the University of Oxford. In the USA, these include Columbia Business School, Harvard Law School, Stanford Law School, UCLA Business School and Yale Law School.