

Consumer Goods and Retail speaker series

17 November 2021

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM (UTC-05:00)

Webinar

Vaccine mandates, flexible work arrangements, and health and safety requirements remain front and center in employment issues faced by employers, including those in the consumer goods and retail industry.

This presentation explores the current interplay between COVID-19 and US employment law, employment law developments under the Biden Administration, and what employers can expect as we close out the year and look ahead to 2022.
