

Annamaria Algieri

Legal Director

annamaria.algieri@dlapiper.com

Milan

T: +39 02 80 618 1

F: +39 02 80 618 201

M: +39 347 03 49 803

Annamaria Algieri advises clients operating in a number of sectors such as pharmaceutical, design, fashion, food, automotive and entertainment. Her activity includes trademark searches, drafting trademark clearance opinions, preparing and filing Italian, European, International and Foreign trademark applications; responding to Patent and Trademark Office actions and prosecution of European and International trademarks (including filing of declaration of use and affidavit).

She also handles opposition, revocation, cancellation and invalidity proceedings for trademarks at national, European and foreign level. She assists clients in pre-contentious matters including drafting of cease and desist letters, negotiations and drafting of coexistence agreement.

Furthermore, Annamaria focuses on customs monitoring of trademarks to check incoming goods and identify any infringement at the national, EU and foreign customs authorities in order to prevent the import or re-export of suspected goods; she assists clients also with the well as filings before the SIAE.

Finally, she deals with filings of models before the EU.

• Intellectual Property and Technology

English French German Italian

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- French
- German
- Italian

Prior Experience

Before joining DLA Piper, Annamaria worked with leading Italian and international law firms.

Recognitions

Annamaria is mentioned by World Trademark Review among the most reputable Individuals in relation to prosecution and strategy.

- “A heavyweight in the trademark space, DLA Piper’s Milan contingent brings a wealth of international resources and impressive local knowledge to the table. Something that differentiates it from a lot of other big players is its thriving filing and prosecution division – a relative rarity among Italian law firms. A key player in its establishment has been Annamaria Algeri, who now heads up the unit.” (WTR1000 2021)

Education

- University of Calabria, Degree in Foreign Languages and Literatures

Memberships

- Registered Italian and European Trademark and Design Attorney
- Licensed to practice before the Italian Patent and Trademark Office and the Community Trademark and Design Office
- AIPPI Member
- INTA Member
- AICIPI Member
- INTA Trademark Administrators’ Committee
- Member of the Enhancement of IP Consultants Working Group of the Italian Industrial Property Consultants Institute