Matteo Almini has extensive experience in advising leading real estate and private equity players as well as banking and insurance operators on corporate matters with particular focus on national and cross border M&A transactions, joint venture, LBOs and corporate reorganisation.

His practice includes also assisting clients in the corporate aspects of the debt restructuring process, such as the issuance of quasi-equity instruments (strumenti finanziari partecipativi).

Matteo has worked his entire carrier in Corporate M&A and, more in general, in the context of extraordinary transactions, spending more than a decade in the Corporate department of the most reputable magic circle law firms in Milan. He joined DLA Piper in 2017.
