Rodrigo Alvarez is a founding partner of DLA Piper (Chile). He focuses his practice on tax and real estate matters.

- Real Estate

Rodrigo's tax practice includes advising Chilean and foreign clients on both inbound and outbound matters. He has experience in the structuring of businesses and companies in Chile, as well as issues of tax noncompliance and conflicts with the tax authority. In real estate, Rodrigo has participated in advising more than 100 commercial, housing and industrial real estate projects in Chile, from each project's initial structuring to its sale or final lease. He has advised and advises several of Chile's leading real estate and construction companies. Rodrigo also has experience working on both local and international mergers and acquisitions deals.
