Nikolaj Helsinghoff Andersen is highly skilled in construction law and in procurement processes regarding complex construction projects.

Nikolaj has vast experience of construction and consultancy law and has for the last 7 years assisted various construction-industry players in drawing up and negotiating contracts - including PPP contracts, contracts regarding strategic cooperation and other complex construction contracts.

In addition, Nikolaj has conducted a number of survey proceedings, performance-bond-payment proceedings as well as lawsuits and arbitration proceedings.

Furthermore, Nikolaj provides general strategic advice to construction project parties, including in relation to negotiation, risk management, preservation of evidence, contract management and claims management as well as dispute resolution.

In cooperation with our procurement-law team, Nikolaj also assists public-sector clients in connection with tendering procedures.
