Alberto Angeloni is a Partner of the Litigation & Regulatory department, based in Rome, works between the offices of Rome and Milan.

Alberto provides services in National and cross border restructurings and complex corporate, insolvency and commercial litigation.

He has gained experience in representing clients in bankruptcy proceedings such as claw back actions, voluntary and involuntary petitions for bankruptcy, appeals against the opening of bankruptcy proceedings, proceedings for the validation of pre-pack arrangements and composition with creditor plans and any other matters relating to domestic and international insolvency proceedings.

He assists debtors and creditors in restructuring and reorganization matters in compliance with the Italian bankruptcy law. In this context, he has gained considerable experience in composition with creditors and debt restructuring agreements, having obtained the approval of numerous proceedings before the courts of Rome, Milan, Monza, Florence and Pistoia.

Alberto has also acquired considerable experience in shareholder disputes, board of directors duties and liabilities, as well as corporate and commercial disputes.
