Competition and sustainability: the need for further guidance on legitimate cooperation

7 September 2021
Antitrust Matters

Climate change is one of the most important priorities facing the international community. The increased focus on environmental concerns has incentivized companies to pursue sustainability initiatives. In many instances, cross-industry collaboration is important for such initiatives to succeed.

Framing patents as essential facilities in Chinese antitrust: Ningbo Ketian Magnet Co., Ltd. v. Hitachi Metals

7 September 2021
Antitrust Matters

A Chinese court recently ruled in Ningbo Ketian Magnet Co., Ltd. v. Hitachi Metals, Ltd. that a patent-holder's refusal to license patents for producing rare-earth magnets to competitors constituted an abuse of dominance in violation of China's Antimonopoly Law (AML).

Learning the lessons on excessive pricing from Aspen

7 September 2021
Antitrust Matters

Back in April 2017, The Times ran a story detailing how a drug giant had a "secret plan" to destroy a cancer medicine unless large price rises were agreed to by national purchasing authorities. A month later, the European Commission opened an investigation into Aspen.

The challenges of compliance in a modern world: The changing landscape of cartel enforcement

7 September 2021

Antitrust Matters

With the rise of technological developments, we also have seen increased risks. In this new digital world, we are creating more data year on year. Data storage, ease of communications (including the use of email and chat), along with the ease of photos and videos means that data volumes are increasing exponentially.
