

Chloe Ball

Associate

chloe.ball@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 (0) 207 796 7574

Chloe Ball qualified into the London Restructuring team in August 2019.

Since joining the team, Chloe has advised on both contentious and non-contentious restructuring and insolvency mandates, with particular focus acting for various stakeholders on company voluntary arrangements, administrations and financial restructurings.

Before joining the team Chloe spent three months seconded to DLA Piper's New York Restructuring practice and has experience of cross-border restructuring situations.

- Restructuring
- Consumer Goods, Food and Retail
- Real Estate

- Advising a bar and restaurant company on the implementation of a Company Voluntary Arrangement.
- Advising various stakeholders on distressed real estate matters and enforcement.
- Acting for both purchasers and sellers on various sales of distressed businesses, both inside and outside of formal insolvency procedures.
- Advising on the successful implementation of a casual dining company's Company Voluntary Arrangement in 2018 and in relation to the sale of the business and certain assets out of administration in October 2020.
- Advising a syndicate of banks in relation to the restructuring of a courier company.

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Education

- University of Law, Graduate Diploma in Law and LPC with MSc Law, Business and Management (Distinction)
- University of York, BA History (First)

Memberships

- The Law Society of England and Wales

INSIGHTS

Publications

Solutions within the legal and operational toolkit for businesses in Retail (and the supply-chain) to enhance resilience

24 May 2021

The Government's roadmap out of lockdown signals a return to trading for a number of businesses hard-hit by the COVID-19 pandemic.
