

Emily A. Campo

Associate

emily.campo@dlapiper.com

Washington, DC

T: +1 202 799 4603

F: +1 202 799 5102

Emily Campo represents owners, investors, lenders, landlords, tenants and investors in complex real estate transactions.

Emily's experience includes the acquisition, disposition, financing and leasing of office, multi-family, student housing, retail and other assets. Emily drafts and negotiates documents, performs legal due diligence, and advises our clients on the closing process.

• Real Estate

• Real Estate

Among other projects, Emily has recently worked on the following matters:

- Acquisition and financing of a US$1 Billion portfolio of retail assets across the United States
- Acquisition of an office building in Washington, DC for a purchase price of US$150 million
- Disposition of a 300,000 square foot office building in Washington, DC
- Acquisition of an office building in California for a purchase price of US$150 million
- Acquisition and financing of a 210-unit apartment project
- Acquisition of a 680-unit apartment project
- Acquisition and financing of an office building in California for a purchase price of US$90 million
- Disposition of two student housing projects in Florida
- Disposition of a US$70 million portfolio of manufactured housing communities in Florida
- Representation of a landlord on the leasing of a 193,000 square foot office building
- Representation of an international consulting company in multiple lease matters across the United States
- Drafting and negotiation of property management agreements for office, multi-family and other assets

Admissions

- Arizona
- District of Columbia

Education

- J.D., Arizona State University
- B.A., Political Science, University of Pittsburgh

Memberships

- DC Volunteer Lawyers Project, Junior Board Member