Danielle Carter has experience in complex commercial litigation and dispute resolution cases. While Danielle's main practice area is commercial litigation with a primary focus on civil fraud, breach of contract and shareholder and partner disputes, she has also worked on some high profile competition litigation matters.

Danielle's practice is both national and international, having acted for domestic and global clients in local, cross border and multijurisdictional disputes.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

- Consumer Goods, Food and Retail

- Media, Sport and Entertainment

- Acting for Liverpool Football Club in defending a claim for unpaid commissions purportedly owed pursuant to a sponsorship agreement with BetVictor. Attended a five-day remote trial in the London Circuit Commercial Court [2020] EWHC 2271 (Comm). Advising in respect of the claimant's application to the Court of Appeal for permission to appeal which was ultimately rejected. This judgment makes it clear that direct involvement in a deal will be required, in the absence of an express term to the contrary.
- Advising a high-net worth individual in defending a breach of contract claim worth over USD30 million. Defending an application for summary judgment.
- Acting for Sainsbury's in the Supreme Court in 2020 and Court of Appeal in 2018 in the Sainsbury's v Mastercard proceedings in relation to its claim that Mastercard illegally fixed the default multilateral interchange fees [2020] UKSC 24; [2018] EWCA Civ 1536. This was a landmark case given the amounts at stake and potential ramifications for other retailers affected.
- Advising a high-net worth individual in defending a breach of warranty claim in the Commercial Court against a large pharmaceuticals company.
- Acting for a claimant in a multimillion pound complex commercial dispute against numerous defendants spanning multiple jurisdictions.
- Advising Media-Saturn Holdings GmbH (a major European electronics retailer) in its standalone claim against Panasonic and Toshiba in relation to the CPT Cartel, successfully defending an application for strikeout and/or summary judgment [2019] EWHC 1095 (Ch).
