

Sterling Chan

Associate

sterling.chan@dlapiper.com

San Francisco

T: +1 415 836 2532

F: +1 415 659 7334

Sterling Chan concentrates his practice in corporate and transactional matters working with clients on mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, financings, corporate governance, real estate transactions, as well as a variety of cross-border investments. Sterling represents strategic investors, startups, multinational entities, BtoB/BtoC manufacturers, and private and public companies in industries, including emerging technology, manufacturing, real estate and food and beverage. A substantive portion of the matters Sterling works on are cross-border in nature and deals with a diverse array of transactions in the APAC region, including markets in China, Hong Kong, Japan, Taiwan, Thailand, and Singapore. Before becoming an attorney, Sterling worked on cases related to the EB-5 Immigrant Investor Program, as well as dealing with FCPA compliance from an in-house role. Sterling is fluent in Mandarin Chinese, Japanese, and Taiwanese, as well as conversational in Burmese.

- Corporate

Admissions

- California

Education

- J.D., George Washington University

Publications

Enforcing or avoiding contractual IP rights in the era of COVID-19: Being or dealing with a distressed company

27 May 2020

It is critical for companies to re-examine the contractual burdens and benefits that are a part of their IP portfolio.

- "COVID-19 Bankruptcy Issues Complicate IP Contracts," Law360, August 21, 2020

NEWS

DLA Piper advises StreetLight Data in its acquisition by Jacobs

10 February 2022

DLA Piper represented StreetLight Data, Inc., a leader in mobility analytics, in its recent acquisition by Jacobs, a professional services company offering consulting, technical, scientific and project delivery services for the government and private sector.
