

Micah Chavin

Associate

micah.chavin@dlapiper.com

Sacramento

T: +1 916 930 3268

F: +1 916 930 7904

Micah Chavin is a member of DLA Piper’s litigation and regulatory group. He represents businesses and individuals in a wide variety of complex litigation involving business and insurance disputes, consumer class action defense, and corporate internal and government investigations. Micah also has an active pro bono practice, including drafting a successful appellate brief for the California Court of Appeals that achieved a total victory for his client.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

Micah received his J.D. from Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law, where he graduated magna cum laude and Order of the Coif and was Membership Editor of Northwestern Law Review. Upon graduation, Micah clerked for a federal judge in the Central District of California.

-
- Represents large insurance company in defending nationwide litigation and regulatory enforcement proceedings
 - Defended well-known retailer in statewide investigation and enforcement proceedings regarding the Hazardous Waste Control Act by state attorneys general and county district attorneys
 - Represented technology company in consumer protection investigation by state attorneys general
 - Represented online retailer in class action consumer protection lawsuit under California Business & Professions Code § 17200

Admissions

- California

Education

- J.D., Northwestern University

Publications

Author, "New California laws make potentially costly changes to Civil Discovery Act," December 17, 2019