Guillemette Couderc assists clients in a full range of compliance matters and corporate crimes. She advises companies on the implementation and/or strengthening of their compliance programs to meet the requirements of French and international anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws and assists them when a control is carried out by the relevant authority. She also partakes in internal investigations in order to identify possible legal breaches and, on the basis of the result of such investigations, recommends appropriate remedial actions. In addition, she intervenes on international sanctions matters.
