

Jamie Curle

Partner

jamie.curle@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 (0) 20 7796 6296

F: +44 (0) 20 7796 6916

M: +44 (0)7738 295 248

Jamie Curle is a partner in the Litigation & Arbitration team in London with over 20 years' experience advising clients in the financial services, energy and natural resources, media sport and entertainment and consumer goods, food and retail sectors.

Jamie has particular expertise in cross border disputes, banking, funds and structured products disputes, class actions, fraud and asset tracing matters and natural resources disputes. He has been a driving force behind the firm's innovation in the area of third party funding.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations
- Banking and Finance Litigation
- White Collar and Corporate Crime
- International Arbitration

- In 2018, Jamie successfully led the defence of claims in the High Court and Court of Appeal seeking to establish that an English domiciled parent owed a duty of care in respect of incidents which took place on the property owned by its overseas subsidiary.
- More recently, Jamie secured a USD$200 million summary judgment for a client in a broadcasting dispute, and prevailed in an LCIA dispute in relation to the ownership of an Armenian bank.
- Jamie regularly speaks and writes on third party funding, mass claims, fraud and asset recovery and force majeure issues.
- Acted for a major international consumer products company in the successful defence at first instance and in the Court of Appeal of a class action brought in the English High Court in respect of alleged liability arising from an armed invasion of the property of an African subsidiary company.
- Successfully represented a majority shareholder in a US$100 million+ dispute before the LCIA relating to control of major Armenian retail bank.
- Secured summary judgment for over US$200 million in a dispute arising out of a US$701 million contract for broadcasting rights in Mainland China and Macau.
- Represented a Gulf-based bank in the investigation and successful recovery of over US$300 million of assets allegedly misappropriated through infrastructure projects, involving actions in Switzerland, the Cayman Islands, the BVI, Jersey and London.
- Acted for an oil and gas major in the successful defence of an application to enforce an arbitral award of US$2.5 billion in England and in related international proceedings.
- Obtained summary judgment for a major investment bank in proceedings in England, New York and Tanzania in relation to the recovery of US$140 million of secured assets invested into a power station project in Dar es Salaam, involving proceedings in England, Tanzania, The Netherlands and the United States.

- Acted for a major international bank in the defence of claims in England and Monaco arising out of historic FX trades placed with a Monaco subsidiary of the bank.
- Obtained a favourable settlement for a US multinational media company in the investigation of a systemic and long running fraud perpetrated across a number of European jurisdictions by an IP holder.
- Acted for a joint venture company in an LCIA London arbitration concerning a shareholder dispute in respect of contracts entered into by a major commodities trader, with a value of approximately US$50 billion.
- Advised the Receiver of a European bank in relation to the recovery of US$3.5 billion allegedly misappropriated from the business by members of the former management.

CREDENTIALS

Professional Qualifications

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Recognitions

Jamie has consistently been recommended by Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners for commercial litigation, fraud and banking litigation. Clients describe Jamie as “outstanding”, as having “an excellent strategic grasp of all issues”, as a “superlative and brilliant strategist” who has “excellent rapport with legal counsel and client alike” and as a “classy and sophisticated analyser of macro and micro issues” (Legal 500). He is listed as an asset recovery specialist by Who's Who Legal.

Legal 500, 2020 has the following client commentary:

- “Jamie Curle is absolutely brilliant at running cases, moving between the macro and the micro; he has huge expertise in juggling proceedings in different jurisdictions and is a joy to work with”.
- “Jamie Curle has excellent client skills and good team management”.

Education

- College of Law, Graduate Diploma in Law and Postgraduate Diploma in Legal Practice
- London University, B.A. Hons (1st class)

Memberships

- Law Society of England and Wales
- London Solicitors' Litigation Association
- Transparency International

INSIGHTS

Publications

Lloyd v Google – Supreme Court Judgment – report and impacts on data protection and mass claims in the UK

10 November 2021

UK Supreme Court allowed Google's appeal against the Court of Appeal decision which had previously granted Mr Lloyd permission to serve his representative claim on Google in the United States. The judgment brings to an end to one of the most significant issues to come before the UK Courts concerning class actions and data protection regimes.

Why anti-suit injunctions may be on the rise after Brexit

27 October 2021

The departure of the UK from the EU is expected to lead to a rise in the number of anti-suit injunctions sought in the English courts. In this article we consider the four main reasons why that is likely to be the case.

Cayman Islands Court of Appeal confirms availability of Norwich Pharmacal relief in foreign proceedings in Arcelormittal USA LLC v Essar Global Fund Limited & ors

18 May 2021

The Cayman Islands Court of Appeal has confirmed that the Norwich Pharmacal relief is available in the Cayman Islands in aid of foreign proceedings, a matter on which there was some doubt in light of recent English High Court decisions .

Court of Appeal agrees it is arguable that a duty of care may arise in relation to end-of-life asset disposal

12 March 2021

On 10 March 2021, the English Court of Appeal handed down its decision in Hamad Begum (on behalf of MD Khalil Mollah) v Maran (UK) Limited.

Rowe & ors v Ingenious Media Holdings: the importance of capitalised funders

1 February 2021

The recent decision in Rowe & ors v Ingenious Media Holdings provides some important clarification of aspects of the UK adverse costs regime applicable to third party funders, an area which poses particular risks and challenges to the market.

Boardroom Brexit: What the deal means for dispute resolution

31 December 2020

Boardroom Brexit

This was one of the most contentious areas in the negotiations as both sides wanted assurances that the other party would honour the commitments contained in the TCA in the future.

Boardroom Brexit: What the deal means for dispute resolution

31 December 2020

Boardroom Brexit

This was one of the most contentious areas in the negotiations as both sides wanted assurances that the other party would honour the commitments contained in the TCA in the future.

'Parent company' liability: from Vedanta to BHP

18 December 2020

On 9 November 2020, the English High Court handed down its decision in Município De Mariana & Ors v BHP Group Plc & Anor [2020] EWHC 2930 (BHP), striking out for abuse of process what would have been the largest mass tort claim in English legal history.

Brexit: Choice of Law, Jurisdiction, Enforcement, and Service

27 November 2020

This article looks at the impact of reaching the end of the Brexit transition period (at 11pm on 31 December 2020) on governing law, jurisdiction, enforcement, and service in contracts between UK entities and EU member state entities.

Events

Previous

White Collar Crime, Investigations and Compliance Symposium

5 October 2021

Webinar

CEE Webinar: What CEE perspective offers to third-party funding?

22 April 2021

Webinar
