

Jamie Curle

Associé

jamie.curle@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 (0) 20 7796 6296

F: +44 (0) 20 7796 6916

M: +44 (0)7738 295 248

Jamie Curle is a partner in the Litigation and Arbitration team in London. He is experienced in cross border disputes, particularly in the banking, funds and financial services sectors (including structured products disputes), fraud and asset tracing matters and natural resources disputes. He has been involved in a large number of complex and high profile cases in recent years before domestic and international courts as well as arbitral tribunals.

- Litiges, arbitrage et enquêtes
- Litige bancaire
- Enquête et droit pénal des affaires
- Arbitrage international

Jamie has consistently been recommended by Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners for commercial litigation, fraud and banking litigation. Clients describe Jamie as “outstanding”, as having “an excellent strategic grasp of all issues”, as a “superlative and brilliant strategist” who has “excellent rapport with legal counsel and client alike” and as a “classy and sophisticated analyser of macro and micro issues” (Legal 500).

- Representing a Middle Eastern construction company and its principals in the defence of a US$600m claim before the English High Court alleging conspiracy to defraud.
- Acting for a major investment bank in proceedings in England, New York and Tanzania in relation to the recovery of US$140 million of secured assets invested into a power station project in Dar es Salaam, involving proceedings in England, Tanzania, The Netherlands and the United States.
- Representing a Middle Eastern bank in relation to its restructuring and refinancing and associated multi-jurisdictional litigation involving claims in excess of US$9 billion brought in various Gulf States, England, the US, Switzerland and the Cayman Islands
- Acting for a joint venture company in an LCIA London arbitration concerning a shareholder dispute in respect of contracts entered into by a major commodities trader, with a value of approximately US$50 billion
- Advising the Receiver of a European bank in relation to the recovery of US$3.5 billion allegedly misappropriated from the business by members of the former management.
- Acting for a Russian oil and gas major in the successful defence of an application to enforce an arbitral award of US$2.5 billion in England and in related proceedings.

- Representing a Gulf-based bank in the investigation and successful recovery of over US$300 million of assets allegedly misappropriated through infrastructure projects, involving actions in Switzerland, the Cayman Islands, the BVI, Jersey and London.
- Acting for a US multinational in the investigation of a systemic and long running fraud perpetrated across a number of European jurisdictions by an IP holder, and securing a very favourable settlement.
- Representing a major international bank in the defence of claims in England and Monaco arising out of historic FX trades placed with a Monaco subsidiary of the bank.
- Acting for a major international consumer products company in the successful defence at first instance and in the Court of Appeal of a class action brought in the English High Court in respect of alleged liability arising from an armed invasion of the property of an African subsidiary company

Barreau

- Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales

Reconnaissance

Jamie has consistently been recommended by Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners for commercial litigation, fraud and banking litigation. Clients describe Jamie as “outstanding”, as having “an excellent strategic grasp of all issues” , as a “superlative and brilliant strategist” who has “excellent rapport with legal counsel and client alike” and as a “classy and sophisticated analyser of macro and micro issues” (Legal 500). He is listed as an asset recovery specialist by Who's Who Legal.

Legal 500, 2020 has the following client commentary:

- “Jamie Curle is absolutely brilliant at running cases, moving between the macro and the micro; he has huge expertise in juggling proceedings in different jurisdictions and is a joy to work with”.
- “Jamie Curle has excellent client skills and good team management”.

Éducation

- College of Law, Graduate Diploma in Law and Postgraduate Diploma in Legal Practice
- London University, B.A. Hons (1st class)

Adhésions

- Law Society of England and Wales
- London Solicitors' Litigation Association
- Transparency International