

Anne Duchesne

Counsel

anne.duchesne@dlapiper.com

Paris

T: +33 1 40 15 24 84

F: +33 (0)1 40 15 24 01

Anne Duchesne assists and represents national and international companies in all kinds of employment-related matters, from helping the HR departments with day-to-day work to advising on complicated transactions and challenging restructurings.

Thanks to her education and her years of experience in international law firms, Anne speaks fluent German and English and is used to assist French and foreign companies, as well for consultation as for litigation.

- Employment

English French

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- French

-
- Corporate reorganization
 - Dismissal and redundancy
 - Secondment and expatriation
 - Negotiation of collective agreements
 - Employment related matters in the context of mergers and acquisitions
 - Audit

Professional Qualifications

- Avocate admitted to the Paris Bar

Prior Experience

Anne began her activity at the Paris office of a big German law firm. She then practised within the employment law department of several French law firms operating internationally.

Recognitions

- Best Lawyers: “Ones to Watch” category – Labor and Employment Law – 2022

Education

- HEDAC Versailles, French Bar exam, 2002
- University Paris-X Nanterre, Master European law, 2001
- University Paris-X Nanterre and University Humboldt in Berlin, Master business law and Master German law (LLM), 2000

INSIGHTS

Events

Previous

European Dinner

10 May 2022
Webinar

- Seminar : "France: Employment law training", London, November 2019