Sharon Duncan has over 20 years' practice in the banking litigation sector with considerable experience and a strong reputation in complex high value professional negligence claims against solicitors, valuers and monitoring surveyors, particularly in the commercial sector involving commercial property and portfolio lending, and large scale mortgage fraud recoveries and investigations. This work incorporates breach of trust and fiduciary duty claims and all related litigation, often involving the seeking of injunctive relief.

Sharon's clients include Santander, RBS, Lloyds Banking Group and Clydesdale Bank plc. She also continues to advise a range of clients on their derivatives/swaps mis-selling claims.
