

Peter Elliott

Senior Associate

peter.elliott@dlapiper.com

London

T: +44 (0)20 7796 6283

M: +44 7841 317 697

Peter Elliott acts on a broad range of technology, telecommunications, sourcing and commercial law matters. He has a particular focus on large transactions, in addition to providing regulatory advice on a range of complex matters. Peter is attuned to providing advice and understanding the practical needs of his clients (both from a customer and supplier perspective) after having extensive in-house secondment experience. This is supplemented by an international outlook having practised in DLA Piper's Dubai and Hong Kong offices.

- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Financial Services
- Insurance
- Media, Sport and Entertainment
- Technology

- Advising the European Commission on a major study into cloud computing contracts and on how the laws of England & Wales apply in a cloud computing context
- Advising a global bank on the transformational re-platforming of its legacy IT infrastructure
- Advising a global telecommunications company on the outsourcing of their network operating centres across seven jurisdictions
- Drafting and negotiating a keystone contract for a global sporting body relating to the development and maintenance of the app and website for the hosting of an major sporting event
- Advising a leading body on the establishment of a start-up innovation lab within the insurance sector in London
- Secondments (both 'physical' and 'virtual') to Barclays Bank, Vodafone and Interoute (now GTT)

Recognitions

- Nominated for the 'Rising Star' award for the Global Sourcing Association in 2017

Events

- Peter has presented to external clients and various conferences on this topic, including at the Cloud World Expo in 2016