

Dániel Élő

Junior Associate

daniel.elo@dlapiper.com

Budapest

T: +36 1 510 1100

F: +36 1 510 1101

Dániel Élő joined the Litigation & Regulatory group in June 2019.

Dániel is mostly focused on dispute resolution and insolvency. His dispute resolution experience includes domestic litigations and arbitrations as well.

Previously, he has acquired experience of gambling law at a leading Hungarian law firm, now he is also a member of the DLA Piper team providing assistance in connection with gambling regulatory, compliance and licensing matters.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

Hungarian English

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- Hungarian
- English

Recognitions

- Legal 500, 2020, Dispute Resolution, (Team): Tier 1
- Legal 500, 2018-19, Dispute Resolution, (Team): Tier 2
- Chambers Europe, 2017-20, Dispute Resolution (Team): Band 2
- Chambers Global, 2017-20, Dispute Resolution, (Team), Band 2

Education

- Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Faculty of Law, JD, Budapest, Hungary, 2013-17, summa cum laude
- Passau University, Erasmus+ student, Faculty of Law, Passau, Germany, 2016
- National University of Public Service, Faculty of Public Administration, Public Administration Manager, Budapest, Hungary, 2010-13

Publications

Hungary plans to liberalize its sports betting market

14 February 2022

The Hungarian legislator has decided to open their local sports betting market to all operators based in the European Economic Area, should they meet the requirements outlined in the draft legislation.

- Hungary chapter of “World Bank Group's Doing Business 2020” publication, 2019
- Hungary chapter of “International Comparative Legal Guide to: Gambling 2020”, published by the Global Legal Group, 2019
- “Liability for damages caused by the legislator”, Lajos Vékás (ed.): Civil law, published by Wolters Kluwer, 2018
- “The distribution of government bonds and economic sovereignty”, Anett Pogácsás-Pál Szilágyi-Petra Lea Láncoş-Tamás Ádány (ed.): Selected essays written by law students, published by Pázmány Péter Catholic University, 2015