Workplace bullying — the new frontier

19 FEB 2020

The “#MeToo” movement highlighted the age old human resources concern of sexual harassment and bullying in the workplace. As a consequence, many Alberta employers created policies to address these concerns. The media has focused on sexual harassment stories, but one of the long-term legal impacts of the “#MeToo” movement is the associated issue of addressing bullying in the workplace. Bullying can sometimes be dismissed as something less serious, requiring less attention, and with fewer resources allocated to investigate and remedy.
