By: Ted Maduri | Justin Mooney | Marc Philibert

The DLA Piper team of Ted Maduri, Justin Mooney, Marc Philibert and Graham Erion have contributed the Canadian portion of a multi-jurisdictional guide to establishing a business worldwide published by Practical Law. Establishing a Business in Canada (Federal) is an informative Q&A that provides an overview of key legal issues surrounding business activity in Canada. The wide range of topics discussed include the advantages of various legal arrangements, options for overseas companies seeking to enter the Canadian market, financial reporting, trading disclosure, capital requirements, foreign investment restrictions, taxation and more.
