Kristin Franceschi practices in the areas of sports finance and public finance law.

Kristin is a member of DLA Piper's firmwide Derivatives Committee and its Opinion Committee.

Public Finance

Kristin has extensive experience in the public finance industry, having served as bond counsel and represented issuers, borrowers and other market participants in connection with a broad spectrum of municipal finance transactions. Many of these financings are 501(c)(3) financings for nonprofits; others involve the use of complex derivatives. Kristin also regularly represents clients before the Internal Revenue Service in matters relating to public finance transactions.

Examples of the types of public infrastructure financed in connection with Kristin's public finance transactions include stadium and arenas; museums, colleges, universities, healthcare systems and other 501(c)(3) organizations; solid waste disposal facilities; public infrastructure, including for transportation and clean and drinking water facilities; pooled bond financings; affordable housing facilities; and manufacturing facilities. Kristin represents Loma Linda University Medical Center in connection with its recent financings for a seismic rebuild of its main patient tower.

Sports Finance

Kristin also regularly represents lenders, borrowers and other parties in a broad range of sports financing transactions, with an emphasis on the financing of sports properties for franchises in the National Football League, Major League Baseball, the National Basketball Association and Major League Soccer. Kristin has been instrumental in a significant number of high-profile stadium and arena projects. Representative projects include facilities for the San Francisco 49ers, New York Jets, Minnesota Vikings, Dallas Cowboys, Baltimore Ravens and Las Vegas Raiders; the Sacramento Kings and the Brooklyn Nets; the New York Mets, Baltimore Orioles and the St. Louis Cardinals; Philadelphia Union and Orlando City SC; and the University of Louisville. Certain of these transactions involved secondary market refinancing transactions or derivative products.
