

Kelly Freund

Associate

kelly.freund@dlapiper.com

Wilmington

T: +1 302 468 5648

F: +1 302 691 4778

Kelly L. Freund's practice is primarily focused on corporate litigation in Delaware's Court of Chancery and the Delaware Supreme Court and complex commercial litigation in the Federal District Court for the District of Delaware.

- Litigation, Arbitration and Investigations

Kelly's work encompasses stockholder derivative actions, corporate valuation disputes, M&A litigation, contractual disputes, books and records proceedings, corporate governance disputes, internal investigations, and other commercial disputes. Kelly has litigated multiple matters through trial.

Admissions

- Delaware

Prior Experience

Prior to joining DLA Piper, Kelly worked at a prominent Delaware law firm.

Education

- J.D., Columbia University
Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar
- M.A., University of Mississippi
Phi Kappa Phi
- B.A., Yale University
Distinction in the Major

Courts

- United States District Court for the District of Delaware

Publications

Thrills, spills and poison pills – An Australian legal perspective on Musk’s latest battle

26 April 2022

Enigmatic billionaire, Elon Musk, has a rocky history with US corporate law and regulators. Just the other day a US judge ruled his 2018 Tesla ‘take-private’ tweet was misleading. Now, in his latest headline grabbing corporate play, Musk has taken aim at his social media platform of choice, Twitter, and in doing so, has brought into focus fundamental questions about the proper role of a company’s board.
