Ukraine crisis – Heightened cyber threat – Be prepared

28 February 2022

Global Sanctions Alert

In response to the heightened geo-political tensions resulting from Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the package of economic sanctions imposed by the West, the risk of cyber-attacks by Russia and her proxies is high. We may see an increase in economic extortion to generate revenue to compensate for economic impacts. We may also see retaliatory attacks that are not necessarily revenue generating, but instead are focused on inflicting widespread or targeted economic harm and other disruption. Organisations based in countries that have imposed sanctions and are supporting the defence of Ukraine are at heightened risk.
