

Pablo González

Associate

pgonzalez@dlapiper.cl

Santiago

T: +56 2 2798 2600

F: +56 2 2798 2650

Pablo González focuses on the development of photovoltaic, hydroelectric and wind energy projects. He is knowledgeable in environmental analysis and general sanitary matters.

Pablo advises national and foreign clients from various fields in bidding processes, public works concessions and sanctioning procedures before diverse sectorial authorities. He is also experienced in litigation before specialized courts.

He additionally assists in the development of data protection policies, as well as in the review of agreements for the processing and transfer of data.

LANGUAGES SPOKEN

- English
- Spanish

Outside his practice, Pablo is a professor at Universidad del Desarrollo School of Law, teaching the "History of Law" and the "Professional Ethics" courses. He additionally works as an assistant professor for Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile's "Administrative Procedures" LL.M.

Prior Experience

In addition to practicing at a major law firm in Santiago, Pablo was an attorney at Chile's National Directorate of the Environmental Assessment Service (SEA) and Ministry General Secretariat of the Presidency (SEGPRES) before joining DLA Piper.

- Intellectual Property and Technology
- Data Protection, Privacy and Security
- Finance

- Energy and Natural Resources
- Insurance
- Mining
- Technology

English Spanish

He worked as an assistant professor for Universidad de Chile School of Government's "Legal Bases for State Administration" course, as well as for Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile School of Law's "History of Law" course.

Education

- Diploma in Natural Resources Law, Pontificia Universidad Católica de Chile Law School, 2017

Memberships

- Chilean Bar Association
- The Esports Bar Association